Dear Sir:

This paper is to summarize the interview conducted with Examiner Stephan F. Willett on October 24, 2006, and October 30, 2006, respectively. The Examiner spoke by telephone with Applicant's representative John L. Adair.

Summary

Mr. Adair and Examiner Willett discussed the Final Office mailed October 5, 2005, Claim 1 of the pending application, and the prior art reference U.S. Patent Publication No. 6,744,452 ("Flom"). Specifically, the Examiner and Mr. Adair discussed the term "based on said user's locale preference" as recited in Claim 1 and its relationship to dynamically generated locale-sensitive content. The Examiner requested that the claims be amended to clarify that the dynamically generated locale-sensitive content generated depends on the locale preference so that in some cases the cached content for one locale preference may not be proper for a request corresponding to another locale preference. Mr. Adair submitted the amended claims attached to the Notice of Allowance and Examiner Willett agreed to allow the claims.
